Law Implemented: SDCL 47-12-7.

20:43:06:04. Professional corporation—Admitting shareholder. Whenever a professional corporation intends to admit to the corporation a new shareholder or member, the corporation shall, at least 30 days prior to the action, notify the board in writing of its intention, indicating the identity, licensure status, and residence address of the proposed shareholder or member. Change in ownership or management. Prior to any change in ownership or management of an entity registered under SDCL Chapter 47-12, including any proposed admission, removal, or change of a director, manager, member, partner, or shareholder, the entity shall provide notice of the proposed action to the board, at least thirty days prior to the action, on a form prescribed by the board. In its notice, the entity shall provide the board with the name, license or registration number and status, and address of any proposed director, manager, member, partner, or shareholder, if applicable, and a description of the proposed change in ownership. Any change in ownership under this section must be approved by the board for the entity to maintain its certificate of registration under SDCL Chapter 47-12. The board shall have the authority to request additional information or to hold any other proceeding necessary for the evaluation and approval of any change in ownership.
20:43:06:05. Renewal of certificate of registration. Each registered corporation shall submit, on or before December 31 July 1 of each year, an application for renewal of its certificate of registration. The application shall be accompanied by the required renewal fee of $25.
